EVENT CALL 01 (Old 04)

Question

When would the umpires consider the spinnaker being in the process of hoisting?

Answer

The umpires will consider the spinnaker as being in the process of hoisting when the spinnaker head is continuously moving upwards and the spinnaker would fill on the course the boat is sailing at that time.

The bowsprit extending, or the tack being pulled out will not be considered as hoisting.

EVENT CALL 03 (Old 07)

Question

When would the umpires consider a boat has a controlling position?

Answer

The umpires will consider a boat has a controlling position over the other boat in her match when she is ahead and able to manoeuvre towards the next mark without impediment or in a position to be able to impede, affect or change the actions of the other boat. If both boats are able to impede, affect or change the actions of the other boat neither boat may have a controlling position.

EVENT CALL 05 (Old 09)

Two boats approach each other on opposite tacks and Starboard clearly signals to Port that Port can cross in front of her.
Port crosses and Starboard immediately protests Port for not keeping clear.

What action should the umpires take?

If the Umpires are absolutely certain that the signal by Starboard was clear and:

- a) Port was not keeping clear, then penalize Starboard for breaking rule 2.
Port is exonerated for breaking rule 10 by rule 64.1(a).

- b) Port was keeping clear, then display the green and white flag.

Addendum RC 44

(WS RRS: black types – RC 44 SI: red/underlined types)

Q1.1(c) Obstruction

An object that a boat could not pass without changing course substantially, if she were sailing directly towards it and one of her hull lengths from it. An object that can be safely passed on only one side and an area so designated by the sailing instructions are also obstructions. However, a boat racing is not an obstruction to other boats unless they are required to keep clear of her or to give mark room to her or, if rule 23 applies, avoid her.

The following objects always rank as obstructions:

(a) any vessel with a person (or persons) aboard that is not a racing boat;

(b) any person (or persons) in the water.

A vessel under way, including a boat racing, is never a continuing obstruction.

Q1.1(i) RRS 19.1 is changed to:

When Rule 19 Applies

Rule 19 applies between two boats at an obstruction or when at least one of them is in the zone of an obstruction that is different from an umpire boat or a boat racing the boats are required to keep clear or to give mark-room to her, except

(a) when the obstruction is a mark the boats are required to leave on the same side, or

(b) when rule 18 applies between the boats and the obstruction is another boat overlapped with each of them.

However, at a continuing obstruction, rule 19 always applies and rule 18 does not.

RC 44 EVENT CALL 08

OBSTRUCTION WITH A ZONE

1- At an obstruction with a zone, when is a boat "at the obstruction"?

When a boat enters the zone, that boat is "at the obstruction".

2- How will the umpires decide which side of the obstruction a right-of-way boat has chosen to pass?

When "at the obstruction" it is clear on which side of the obstruction the right-of-way boat is aiming, then the right-of-way boat shall pass the obstruction on that side.

If it is not clear when entering the zone on which side the right-of-way boat is aiming, then as soon as it is clear she is passing one side or the other of the obstruction, she shall pass on that side.

If the course of the other boat was not affected by the right-of-way boat not passing on the determined side or, the right-of-way boat had to fulfil obligations under the rules of Part 2 towards another boat, she will not be penalized.
